ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
SETTING PREHEARING CONFERENCE

A prehearing conference is set for November 7, 2001, at 2:00 p.m., in the Commission Courtroom, State Office Building, 505 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, California to clarify the issues remaining to be resolved and to set hearing schedules and/or briefing schedules.

After review the various motions and phases still pending in these three applications, I conclude that simplification is in order. Therefore, I propose that only one docket be used – Application 98-07-003 – and that each subject that is to be considered separately be separately referenced in the space under the docket number. There are four separate proceedings (so far) in this docket, and I would reference them thusly:

Application of PG&E for Verification, etc.	A.98-07-003 (Suspend Payment of PX Credits)
Application of PG&E for Verification, etc.	A.98-07-003 (Implementation of Suspension of Direct Access)
Application of PG&E for Verification, etc.	A.98-07-003 (Suspend Audit of PX Credits)
Application of PG&E for Verification, etc.	A.98-07-003 (Post PX Direct Access Credits)

Prior to the prehearing conference, I expect the parties to meet and confer in an attempt to clarify issues and settle issues. At the prehearing conference, I expect the parties to have written statements regarding those matters that can be heard on briefs alone, and those matters requiring hearing, along with proposed schedules.

Dated October 11, 2001, at San Francisco, California.
